World Book Day

Books and reading took pride of place on Thursday. Our chosen text - A Midsummer Night's Dream - proved to be a magical starting point for the week's English learning and World Book Day carousel of activities. Thanks to all families who entered into the spirit and helped create costumes. For one day, the school was overrun with fairies, sprites, trees, flowers, fungi and Athenian buildings. It was a truly magical day.

Book Bonanza

This will happen next week. Please see the separate letter from Ms Cole going out today which gives details.

Football Team

At yesterday's fixtures, we drew 0-0 with Horn Park and won 2-0 against James Wolfe. It was great to hear that a teacher from Horn Park reported to Mr Flynn that he thought we had a great team (and deserved to win) and really nice children. The parent referee from James Wolfe said that we have a quality team that play good football.
