THIS WEEK

The building has been full of dance. What joy! Wendy Steatham (our choreographer) was full of praise for the children and staff members on leaving today, and feels confident - following whirlwind sessions - that all classes will give outstanding performances during Arts Week, with the love of learning, appreciation of beauty, zest and teamwork on display to her communicated to parents, carers and family members.

Please be reminded that our annual Sports Day is on Friday next week (21st June): EYFS and Key Stage 1 at 9:30am-11am and Key Stage 2 at 1:30pm-3:15pm. Both will be held at Blackheath Rugby Club, just across the road from school.

Hannah Freeman was in school again and we continued to plan for the start of the new academic year as well as spending time focusing on diary dates so that we will be able to offer greater notice for parents and carers moving forward. Also on our agenda was wraparound provision and I am hoping that greater clarity can be offered in the not too distant future regarding how we intend to support a growing need for extended support across the school.

It has been brought to my attention that some of our present children and past students danced in Wembley Stadium during the half-time break of the RFL Challenge Cup Final last weekend...in front of over 64,000 spectators. Huge congratulations to all!
