Friends of Sherington

The next meeting will be held on Thursday 4th February, 8.30pm at The Royal Oak. We look forward to seeing you there.

Parking - Drop off & Collection

Thank you to all the parents and carers that park considerably when dropping off and collecting children. This has a huge impact on the safety of our children, staff and community. Your continued support is greatly appreciated. Please think before you park!

Class Trips

Both Year 5 classes visited The Dockland Museum to learn more about their History topic of slavery.

Nessa from 5W said: "Everyone one was very excited as we traveled to the museum by train and bus. The museums' display told us more about our topic. The worksheet we completed as we moved around the museum covered all the areas that there was to see. I really enjoyed it"

Judo Club

Students attending Judo Club will be dismissed from Sherington Road entrance from week commencing 25th January.

E-Safety

The school would like to thank all the parents/carers who attended last week's E-Safety Workshop. The response was really positive. From today, you will be able to locate our new E-Safety section on the school's website by going to the parents tab and clicking on the E-Safety link. Here you will find lots of useful resources and links.

GET TO KNOW THE STAFF

This week, the school council has interviewed one of our members of staff Gemma Strother - Year 4 teacher. Here's your chance to find out some interesting facts about her.

Have you had any other jobs?

My dream job was always to be a teacher. Before that, I worked in an office but I didn't think it was a good use of my talents. As a teacher I get to help people, which is what I love doing.

What else are you good at?

I'm good at ICT, I really love new technology and gadgets. I even bought a smartwatch.

Do you like animals?

Yes, I love animals. I have a tabby cat, two rabbits and a parrot. They all live back home in New Zealand.

What are your hobbies?

Rollerskating, sewing/crochet and playing on my Xbox

What is your favourite dish?

Pizza!

If you could meet a celebrity, who would it be?

I love science fiction so it would have to be a sci-fi celebrity.

I hear that Nathan Fillion (Firefly captain/Castle) is a cool guy.

At School, what subjects did you enjoy?

Maths, ICT and Science.

Where are you from?

I am from Auckland, New Zealand.

What do you dislike most?

People who are dishonest.

The Boy Who Bit Picasso - interactive theatre show

Mycene House are hosting an interactive family theatre show 'The Boy Who Bit Picasso' (based on the book by Antony Penrose) on Saturday 6th February at 3pm. Visit the website www.mycenahouse.co.uk or call 020 8858 1749 to book

Children's Book Swap 13th Feb Greenwich Heritage Centre

Greenwich Heritage Centre in Woolwich will be one of over fifty venues taking part in the next London Children's Book Swap on Saturday 13th February, from 11 - 3pm. We will have lots of free family activities taking place as well as having the opportunity to bring along an old book to swap it for a different read to take away.

Greenwich Music Trust

As part of the Music-Hub, Mr. Veacock is collecting instruments that are in need of minor repairs that you no longer require. These will be used to help enable children, in Greenwich, become musicians who could not otherwise afford to learn an instrument. If your able to support this cause., donations can be left with the school office.
