Friends of Sherington

Reminder: Sherington Christmas Fair is this Sunday 6 December 1pm - 4pm.

We look forward to seeing you at the Fair.

Year 5 Trip

Year 5 visited the Science Museum yesterday to support their learning topic 'Earth and Space' Stefan in 5W said "We travelled by train and tube to get there and we got to explore and learn more about space, Apollo 10 & 11. It was really good"

Year 2 Trip

As part of our Religious Education topic on Christianity, year 2 visited St John's Church to take part in the Christmas Journey workshop. They learned to retell the story through the use of craft, drama, puppets and storytelling to experience the nativity and its relevance today.

Clubs - Last Sessions

Reminder: Judo, Football & Basketball club have now finished.

Week commencing 7 December last session for: Gymnastics, Culture Club, Computing, Ball Skills and Drama club.

Music and Movement club will add the two session missed onto the Spring term.

The football team and Glee club will continue through the term. Clubs for the Spring term will be advertised in the New Year.

Pantomime and Own Clothes Day

On Friday 18 December we will be hosting Babes in the Wood, Pantomime in school for Reception through to Year 6.

This day will also be an own clothes day and we will be asking for a donation of £1 towards this production.

GET TO KNOW THE STAFF

This week, the school council has interviewed one of our members of staff Amy Woollard, Teaching Assistant. Here's your chance to find out some interesting facts about her

Have you had any other jobs?

I used to work at the Ecology Park in Greenwich as the Education Officer, involving picking up lots of bugs!

What else are you good at?

I am a creative person and enjoy painting as a new interest.

Do you like animals?

Yes, I live animals. I have a dog called Rodney, a hamster called Chip and a corn snake that's 5 ½ foot long called Cleo.

What are your hobbies?

I decorate cakes, often making birthday cakes too.

What is your favourite dish?

Lasagne! I enjoy most pasta dishes.

If you could meet a celebrity, who would it be?

Lee Evans – as he really makes me laugh.

At School, what subjects did you enjoy?

Design and technology, when the o2 was built, I created a model CD player resembling 'The Dome' in DT

Where are you from?

I was born in Greenwich and have always lived in the Borough

What do you dislike the most?

I can't tolerate the feel of chalk - very strange I know!

SOMETHING FOR THE WEEKEND

It's our own marvelous and fantastic Christmas Fair on Sunday running from 1pm-4pm with a whole load of festive cheer; so come along, support the school, and join in the fun.

One of the worst kept secrets of the season is the wonder of the Steiner Enchanted Winter Fair on Mycenae Road, this Sunday as well. It's running from 11am - 4pm, so you can head along there before coming to Sherington.

And there are carols up at Severndroog Castle in Oxleas Woods on Saturday if you're not in the festive mood yet and fancy a walk on the wilder side. 1-1.45 and 3-3.45. There's an entrance fee but you get refreshments and a castle tour included. Couldn't be jollier.

Music Award - Lead Choir

We were awarded a Lead Choir award in assembly this week from the Greenwich Music Hub for outstanding contribution to the Greenwich Borough Music Hub events.
