Trips out

This week both year 1 classes have visited The Reminiscence Centre in Greenwich as part of their study for Humanities. While there they discussed and looked at toys from the past and compared them to today's toys.

Xixi & Lara of 1D said "It was about toys of the past. We saw skipping ropes and a rag dolly. We enjoyed splitting into groups to talk about different toys.

School Office

We now have a white post box outside the main office door, where you can deposit money for dinners and clubs or letters to the school.

(envelopes provided)

Please clearly mark the envelope with your child's name and class.

Healthy Eating Week

Children have enjoyed taking part in various activities this week, such as trips to the local green grocers to choose fruit to make a fruit salad and the supermarket for ingredients to make a hearty vegetable soup, flat bread and sandwiches. (recipes can be obtained from the school office) During this week we have learned the importance of healthy eating and used a variety of cooking skills to create these dishes.

Parental Survey Reminder

Please visit the parent views section on the school website under the parent's tab to have your say on online payments for the school.

GET TO KNOW THE STAFF

This week, the school council has interviewed one of our members of staff Sue Bullen - Teaching Assistant. Here's your chance to find out some interesting facts about her.

Have you had any other jobs?

Yes I have spent most of my career working in Museums including the Imperial War Museum (here I met my husband), Victoria and Albert Museum, Theatre Museum and DCMS. I have also volunteered in schools and for a literacy charity called Springboard for Children

What else are you good at?

Listening

Do you like animals?

Yes I do. We will be visiting the Dogs Trust at half term in our efforts to find a suitable rescue dog.

What are your hobbies?

Cruising, knitting and baking (although the contestants in the Great British Bake Off have nothing to worry about!!)

What is your favourite dish?

My Mum's homemade Cornish Pasty.

If you could meet a celebrity, who would it be?

There are so many ... can I have two? The first one is Enid Blyton I loved as a child reading the Famous Five in particular Five Go Down To The Sea. She bases it around the area I grew up in so I would be interested to talk to her about her memories.

GET TO KNOW THE STAFF CONTINUED...

Secondly the food writer Elizabeth David. I love reading her books particularly A book of Mediterranean Food. She would transport me back to the warmth of the suns

At School, what subjects did you enjoy?

Geography and Chemistry

Where are you from?

You've probably never heard of it. Padstow in Cornwall.

What do you dislike the most?

Self-checkout tills at supermarkets! They always take longer!

SOMETHING FOR THE WEEKEND

There's things' happening down in Lee this weekend. One of the fabulous Lochaber Children's Table Sales takes place in the Lochaber Hall on Manor Lee Terrace, with the usual great range of second hand clothes, toys, and books. Saturday 3pm - 5pm.

Suggestion.. Get there early. Eltham United Reformed Church has the SE London Meccano Show on Saturday as well, now in its 37th Year. 10.30am - 4.30pm. If you like building, get inspired. And if you simply have to go up town, celebrate Diwali this Sunday with a huge bash in Trafalgar Square 12.30pm - 7.00pm; a free event offering musical delights, culinary delights, and some spiritual highlights. Happy Diwali.
